

David R. Schechter Community Center
1089 South Patrick Drive
Satellite Beach, FL 32937

The David R. Schechter Community Center is the recreational community hub for the City. It is the site for many gatherings, community special events, classes, programs, and a well rounded listing of activities throughout the school year. The community center is bursting at the seams during the summer, when the number of activities offered doubles and includes program favorites such as Marine Camp, Fun Dance Camp, and the ever-popular Mr. Science! To view a complete listing, click on Winter/Spring programs; for additional information contact the Recreation Department.